In each annual issue of Pugh's Almanac, a section of about 15 pages was devoted to biographies of prominent men titled "Men of the Time". The biographies are in alphabetical order. Each annual issue repeated the biographies with additions where appropriate and were deleted from the publication upon the man's retirement from active life, or following his death.

Capturing the Text and the Data for the Biographical Database of Australia

Gould Genealogy www.gould.com.au scanned this volume and gave permission for the Biographical Database of Australia (BDA) to incorporate the biographical sections of it into our Database. The CD produced by Gould contains all sections from the volume and is fully searchable. It is available from the BDA Shop

<http://www.bda-online.org.au/shop>.

BDA selected the latest version of a man's biography, which appears as part of a BDA Biographical Report on the selected individual. Names and vital data were extracted from these latest biographies so that linking could take place, which enables the user to view a biography published in this series.
